1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 THE COURT: Please have a seat, everyone. All 3 right, thank you everyone who has traveled to be here. We 4 have a lot of folks on the phone, so we'll just see what 5 happens. So we were -- many of us were together on October 6 2nd and at that time, I spoke at some length about my hopes 7 that there could be constructive discussions so that we can 8 move all this forward. And to be honest, it really doesn't 9 appear that that happened.

10 And I read everything that was filed and some of 11 the arguments were just, frankly, frivolous. Frivolous.
12 Not the type of engagement reflective of what I believe is 13 good faith effort to move this along, and it's a little 14 ironic because many of the arguments speak to efficiencies 15 and not making things more complicated than they need to be 16 and yet virtually all the arguments seek to do just that.

17 When we talked in a preliminary way about the plan 18 administrator's request to amend or supplement, as the case
19 may be, because it's the same standard and I'm really not 20 going to spend any more time than that 10 seconds talking 21 about that distinction, I said they have the right to file 22 an additional adversary proceeding so let's not spend a lot 23 of time on this.

24 That was virtually completely unheeded. Separate 25 adversary proceedings would do nothing to advance the cause

1 of efficiency. If anybody believes that there's some kind 2 of an additional substantive argument that can be made in 3 the context of a separate adversary proceeding as opposed to 4 an amended/supplemented complaint, it's lost on me.
5 Everybody will have the same rights to make additional 6 motions and the same rules of the road will apply.

7 I am not going to redecide and rewrite hundreds of 8 pages on literally the same issues. So to the extent that 9 many of you don't like the rulings, it just kind of is what 10 it is. I'm not going to abridge any of your rights. There 11 is nothing in anything that's before me that's going to 12 abridge any of your rights. That being said, I'm not going 13 to redo everything that I've already done. So if there are 14 real additional things that anybody wants to say, I'm happy 15 to hear from you, but I'm very determined to move this 16 forward. Let's focus on the underlying predicate facts.

17 In the early 2000s, there were mortgage loans that 18 were originated and sold. I could practically take judicial 19 notice of the fact that not every one of those loans was 20 good. You have every right to defend the loans that were 21 originated and sold by your clients. It is virtually 22 impossible to believe, though, that every single one of 23 those is good. Whether or not subsequently in the chain of 24 events the loans that were originated and sold went the 25 Fannie and Freddie route or went to the private RMBS route,

1 okay, if you have arguments about the nature of the 2 indemnification claims as a result of where they ultimately 3 ended up that's great. I'm happy to hear them as and when 4 we get to it.

5 But the fact remains that these were all loans
6 that were originated, by definition, by your clients. So 7 there are unquestionably efficiencies to be maintained by 8 having these complaints amended or supplemented. For 9 example, let's take hypothetical loan seller originator A, 10 for Fannie/Freddie loans, for RMBS loans.

11 Hypothetically, I would assume there would be 12 evidence about the nature of the loan origination process, 13 the underwriting standards, the type of information that the 14 loan officers received, whether or not you relied on W-2s, 15 income tax returns, whether they were stated income loans, 16 what kind of proof you took as to outstanding debt at the 17 time of origination. There will be commonalities and there 18 will be commonalities about the type of proof that I think 19 is good.

20 I'm not going to separately determine in one case 21 that one type of proof -- verification of employment, for 22 example -- is good in one set of cases and it not good in 23 another. Sure, it's possible because it depends the way it 24 was done, but as a general matter, there are efficiencies to 25 be gained in these things proceeding ahead together.

1 So other than a decision to make this as hard as 2 possible for the plan administrator, which is your right as 3 a litigant, I really am having a hard time understanding why 4 there is any opposition to the motion to amend. So that's 5 my preliminary statement on the motion to amend. I'm happy 6 to hear what folks have to say.

7 MR. HOFF: Your Honor, George Hoff, and I
8 represent iFreedom. We filed a very brief objection. We 9 didn't object on the grounds that many parties did.

10 THE COURT: You objected on the grounds that you 11 have a motion to dismiss.

12 MR. HOFF: And we're simply asking that the 13 decision on that be deferred pending the motion to dismiss.
14 If that's granted, then there's nothing to amend. That's --

15 THE COURT: I don't think there's any basis in the 16 law for that position, but I hear it and thank you.

17 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, I hear you, but I think --

18 THE COURT: Wait. Are you representing iFreedom, 19 Ms. Adler?

20 MS. ADLER: No, I'm here -- Mr. (indiscernible) is 21 here. I'm representing Suburban Mortgage and Home Trust 22 Mortgage companies.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MS. ADLER: And I want to make clear that there 25 are concerns about the claims being handled all together.

1 THE COURT: What are those concerns?

2 MS. ADLER: The issues -- I hear you that you
3 believe there are certain issues in common, but there are a 4 number of issues that are profoundly different. There are 5 different loans, different witnesses, different proofs, 6 different all that stuff --

7 THE COURT: That's all --

8 MS. ADLER: -- piece one. Two, there are 9 different governing documents. We don't know how the RMBS 10 claims and those documents will or will not impact the 11 defenses. Three, there --

12 THE COURT: Let me ask you something, Ms. Adler.

13 MS. ADLER: Yes, Judge.

14 THE COURT: If you take as a given, which it is, 15 that the plan administrator can file a separate adversary 16 proceeding --

17 MS. ADLER: Right.

18 THE COURT: -- what difference does it make?

19 MS. ADLER: Because there will be separate trials 20 and because there will not be --

21 THE COURT: And the fact of the matter is that 22 there could be separate trials later if as the cases develop 23 and they don't settle there is a legitimate need for a 24 separate trial, there can be separate trials. There is no 25 situation in which all of the claims in the complaints --

1 it's not necessarily the case that when you have a complaint
2 with multiple counts that there wouldn't be different types
3 of proof. The fact that there are multiple mortgage loans 4 involved does not -- it's not a difference that makes a 5 difference. It simply does not.

6 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, there are --

7 THE COURT: You would have day one through three 8 on one group of loans and day four through six on a separate 9 group of loans. It's not a problem.

10 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, there are other issues 11 that are not common. For example, one can anticipate -- we 12 don't have enough facts in the proposed third amended 13 complaint -- that the allocation issues are going to be 14 different because the RMBS claims were settled --

15 THE COURT: I understand.

16 MS. ADLER: -- between the two numbers.

17 THE COURT: I understand.

18 MS. ADLER: Fannie and Freddie were settled on 19 different grounds.

20 THE COURT: I understand. And the fact of the 21 matter is, that you can -- if you have a case that has five 22 loans that are Fannie/Freddie and five that are RMBS, it 23 could be divided into two trials.

24 MS. ADLER: But there will also be different 25 discovery --

1 THE COURT: So what?

2 MS. ADLER: -- obviously.

3 THE COURT: So what?

4 MS. ADLER: Well, but the point --

5 THE COURT: There would be different --

6 MS. ADLER: -- is if Your Honor wants to proceed

7 efficiently, and I understand that we all share that

8 objective --

9 THE COURT: No, we apparently don't share that 10 objective because I have told you point blank, and there is 11 no dispute, that the plan administrator could file a 12 separate adversary proceeding and I would keep it on the 13 same track. So it is not a difference that makes a 14 difference.

15 MS. ADLER: But the discovery, Your Honor, is not 16 overlapping. It's just not.

17 THE COURT: It does not matter. It does not 18 matter. In a large, complex case, because there might be 19 different sets of issues, it doesn't mean that you bifurcate 20 it. You just have different numbered documents requests and 21 you have more than one deposition. It literally does not 22 matter.

23 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, the way that we read the 24 standard for filing an amended or supplemental pleading, 25 there has to be a minimum level of relatedness.

1 THE COURT: And there is a minimum level of 2 relatedness. These were loans that were originated by your 3 client in the same general period of time, period. And 4 after that, they went -- they might've gone their separate 5 ways, okay, and there might be differences down the path 6 that you will illuminate me on, but that has nothing to do 7 with this.

8 This is as if you're saying that if I were a buyer 9 of widgets I would have to file separate lawsuits for each 10 defective widget. That's not the way it works.

11 MS. ADLER: Well --

12 THE COURT: Ms. Adler --

13 MS. ADLER: That might be the way it works --

14 THE COURT: Ms. Adler, we're done.

15 MS. ADLER: Okay.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. ADLER: Thank you.

18 MS. HENDERSON: Good morning, Your Honor. Tracy
19 Henderson. I represent the defendants listed in the joinder

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MS. HENDERSON: I'm prepared to submit on the 23 pleadings on this issue, Your Honor. I would just say one 24 brief thing, Judge. I understand from my colleague that 25 Friday, Saturday, and even until 11:00 New York time Sunday

1 there were different complaints filed for different 2 defendants, so --

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I don't know what you're 4 talking about, Ms. Henderson.

5 MS. HENDERSON: I haven't looked at the docket, 6 Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: Okay, well --

8 MS. HENDERSON: -- because I've been traveling.

9 THE COURT: I was traveling as well and maybe I 10 should find out what you're talking about because --

11 MS. HENDERSON: Yeah, I was prepared to give LBHI
12 the benefit of the doubt. I represent a group --

13 THE COURT: Could you just hold on a minute and 14 just let me find out what you're talking about?

15 MS. HENDERSON: Absolutely, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, this is Bill Maher --

18 THE COURT: Yeah.

19 MR. MAHER: -- for the plan administrator, Lehman 20 Brothers Holdings, Inc. We have a motion here today, Your 21 Honor, on our request for leave to amend the existing 22 complaints.

23 THE COURT: Right, so what's Ms. Henderson 24 referring to?

25 MR. MAHER: What Ms. Henderson is referring to is

1 there -- as I indicated, I think on --

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 MR. MAHER: -- October 2 when we were here
4 previously --

5 THE COURT: Additional defendants.

6 MR. MAHER: -- there are other defendants who did 7 not -- we did not have claims against them for Fannie and 8 Freddie --

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. MAHER: -- or they had settled claims for 11 Fannie and Freddie --

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. MAHER: -- but there are claims that we have 14 for the originating defective loans that wound up to the 15 private label Trustees.

16 THE COURT: Nothing to do with what's before me 17 today.

18 MR. MAHER: It has nothing to do with what's 19 before you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: So, Ms. Henderson, what are you trying 21 to tell me?

22 MS. HENDERSON: Well, as I understand it, Your 23 Honor, they're RMBS claims and what they're trying to add to 24 the GSE complaint are RMBS claims.

25 THE COURT: No, no, no.

1 MS. HENDERSON: So my point --

2 THE COURT: Stop, stop, stop, stop. Okay. Mr.
3 Maher just said what I was told earlier in the month. We 4 have a group of defendants here who are defendants in 5 existing complaints; right?

6 MS. HENDERSON: Yes, GSE related.

7 THE COURT: GSE related. Correct. The estate,
8 subsequent to the RMBS settlement, has determined that it 9 wishes to sue additional defendants and that's what has 10 happened.

11 MS. HENDERSON: Correct, Your Honor. The 12 defendants are different but the claims are going to be the 13 same.

14 THE COURT: It does not matter. What's -- you're 15 being asked to look at what's on your plate, not what's on 16 your neighbor's plate. The fact that somebody else has been 17 sued on a claim like yours that's being added to the 18 existing complaint makes no difference.

19 MS. HENDERSON: I'm trying to make a very basic 20 point, Judge. I'm really sorry if I'm confusing --

21 THE COURT: Okay, I'm sorry I'm just not 22 understanding --

23 MS. HENDERSON: -- Your Honor, my apologies. My 24 basic point was they had the wherewithal and the time and 25 the energy to file those separate complaints articulating

1 more clearly, I assume, what the contracts where, what the 2 loan level breaches are. I don't understand why LBHI just 3 couldn't take the few defendants in -- GSE claims and add 4 them to a new action. We wouldn't even be here.

5 THE COURT: No, no, no --

6 MS. HENDERSON: That's my only point, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry, there are -- that's the 8 entire ball of wax. They filed those complaints because 9 there weren't existing complaints. Those are new 10 defendants. What you and Ms. Adler are advocating for is 11 that the plan administrator should file new complaints 12 against the existing defendants because --

13 MS. HENDERSON: Because the current proposed 14 amendment or supplement doesn't outline in detail the 15 contracts at issue, the loan level breaches, that's the 16 issue, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: But that has nothing to do with 18 whether or not they -- they're here asking leave to amend or 19 supplement. Take your pick. Once they're granted leave, 20 they're then going to do that and it's going to have the 21 caption on it that it has now and it's going to say third 22 amended complaint as opposed to new adversary number 18 dash 23 whatever, whatever, with literally the same allegations.

24 Once they do that, you will be in the same place 25 in terms of your knowledge as to their allegations -- which

1 loans, what the alleged breaches are, what the governing 2 documents are -- and then we're going to go from there. The 3 only thing that you gain by my agreeing with you is you make 4 it harder for them. That's the only thing that you gain.

5 MS. HENDERSON: And, respectfully, Your Honor, my 6 point is that they could've simply just added our clients to 7 this new lawsuit. And with that, I submit, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: They're separate lawsuits. Do you 9 remember the whole thing about how they tried to do it in 10 one and you folks insisted -- on a technical reading of the 11 rules, which I backed you up on -- that they have to do 12 separate adversaries? So there isn't just -- they could've 13 just amended one document. They would've had to file 14 additional individual adversaries against each and every one 15 of you. And that's just a pure waste of resources.

16 You know, everybody's got their rights and I'm 17 trying my level best to respect everyone's rights. They're 18 fiduciaries. They have an extraordinary obligation to 19 minimize costs. You representing your clients, you have an 20 equal obligation to do everything you can in their 21 interests. But I'm managing this litigation and I am not 22 going to countenance wastefulness and with all due respect 23 right back at all of you, that's what this has been about, 24 this entire conversation around amending and supplementing; 25 okay?

1 MS. HENDERSON: Thank you, Your Honor for 2 listening. I appreciate it.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. PRICE: Your Honor?

5 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, sir.

6 MR. PRICE: Gifford Price representing Security
7 National Mortgage. Just a couple of comments with respect 8 to what's been discussed. (Indiscernible) efficiency and we 9 can argue lots of aspects of that. (Indiscernible) the 10 point is we want to make sure if there were amendment and we 11 file our objection, that's a record, of course.

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry, sir --

13 MR. PRICE: (Indiscernible).

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry, sir. Sir, I'm having a 15 very hard time hearing you. So if you could pick up --

16 MR. PRICE: Can you hear me now?

17 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm just having a difficult 18 time. Could you just say that again, please?

19 I can't hear him. I think he cut himself off. I 20 think he cut his -- we'll figure it out and we'll get him 21 back, but in the meantime, Mr. Leib is raising his hand to 22 speak, so I'm going to hear from Mr. Leib.

23 There's a program we have, a dashboard, and we -- 24 not me because I can only -- I can't walk, talk, and chew 25 gum at the same time -- but Ms. Eisen has a screen where she

1 can see everyone and there's an icon that shows the person
2 wanting to speak. And it's great for controlling and making 3 this be efficient. So, Mr. Leib, are you there? We've 4 opened your line.

5 MR. LEIB: I am here. Good morning, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Good morning.

7 MR. LEIB: I represent Home Trust formerly known 8 as SGB. We did not file an objection. We filed a statement 9 of nonobjection. There's a couple just brief points. One 10 is a point and the other's a question.

11 One is, I know you don't want to spend much time 12 on it, so I won't, but I do think that it should be these 13 amendments, quote-unquote, should be done through 14 supplemental pleadings under 15(b), and the reason just 15 being that -- and we had put this in our papers, not about 16 the 15(b), but that there needs to be some mechanism that 17 ensures that we don't have to go through the whole process 18 of objecting to subject matter jurisdiction and proper 19 venue.

20 THE COURT: I would be delighted to make sure that 21 that doesn't happen, but ironically, I thought that one of 22 the things that was underlying some of the objections was 23 the desire to preserve the ability to make the same 24 objections. So I would be delighted to take you up on your 25 offer in that regard. But I am -- it's unclear to me that

1 that is really what folks would like.

2 MR. LEIB: I don't know about the other 3 defendants, Your Honor. I would say that the concern I have 4 with amendment is technically an amendment would moot the 5 prior complaint and so we have these motions for leave to 6 appeal that are pending. I don't know what would happen in 7 an amendment situation. Presumably, we'd have to refile --

8 THE COURT: I see.

9 MR. LEIB: -- (indiscernible) having to do the 10 denials again pro forma for the same reasons as previously 11 stated and then refile, pay new fees, get it back up there, 12 get it assigned to a judge.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, I hear you. I hear you.

14 MR. LEIB: And I don't know -- I'll be honest, I 15 haven't had the time, unfortunately, because of my schedule
16 to -- and because I did realize this issue over the weekend 17 -- to look at what happens in a supplemental pleading, 18 whether we still preserve the right with regard to the new 19 portion of the complaint.

20 But even if that were the case, it wouldn't moot 21 the prior complaint and we could all figure out some 22 mechanism whereby we preserved our rights (indiscernible) 23 denied it and they were sort of -- the District Court was 24 alerted that the complaints had been amended or supplemented 25 and that the same issue exists. It just wouldn't moot the 1 prior complaint --

2 THE COURT: I --

3 MR. LEIB: -- which I think --

4 THE COURT: Look, I appreciate that. That raises
5 a constructive and, I think, highly technical point that I
6 think you could work out with the plan administrator. You 7 have -- you should be able to go ahead with your existing 8 appeal and not have the amendment negatively affect that in 9 any way or cause you to incur additional expense.

10 I was being entirely honest when I said that I 11 believe that one of the things that was of concern to folks 12 in the amendment/supplement versus separate adversary issue 13 was preserving the ability to -- for want of a better 14 expression -- raise the same arguments all over again which 15 I'm not going to be a big fan of; raising new arguments on 16 new things, sure. So I'll ask the plan administrator if you 17 take any issue with what I think is a technical, practical 18 point that Mr. Leib raised.

19 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, we had no intention to 20 affect the current appeal that was pending before Judge 21 Caproni in the Southern District. I had not, frankly, 22 considered the point that counsel raised here on the phone.
23 I'm happy to work out any kind of arrangement which 24 preserves everybody's rights to pursue their appeal from 25 Your Honor's subject matter jurisdiction issue.

1 THE COURT: Sure. Okay. Mr. Leib --

2 MR. LEIB: (Indiscernible).

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Go ahead.

4 MR. LEIB: So the other -- it's just a question 5 for (indiscernible) which is, they have now filed, you know, 6 over the weekend all these new complaints. Is it anybody's 7 intention -- and I just don't know the answer to this -- to 8 try and coordinate all those other cases with this case? If 9 not, then we move forward as we had previously planned. If 10 it is, then it just affects how we deal with the case 11 management (indiscernible).

12 THE COURT: I'm not going to slow any of you folks 13 down because there are new people who have joined the party.

14 MR. LEIB: So that would be in a separate 15 coordinate proceeding, then?

16 THE COURT: Well, no. They won't but there's -- 17 you're not going to be slowed down because of them. I mean, 18 fundamentally is that your question?

19 MR. LEIB: Well, it is. I mean, if there are new 20 complaints where people -- new parties have to answer or 21 file motions or do whatever, then if the point -- and it's 22 going to be coordinated with our case -- if the point is 23 that we only go through discovery once on coordinate issues 24 --

25 THE COURT: Here's the thing. We're about to get

1 to the end of the road with respect to the first round of 2 motions. The only ones that remain sub judice are iFreedom
3 and Universal Mortgage, okay, and those are soon not going 4 to be sub judice; okay? And then we're at the end of that 5 period and we talked about this on the 2nd, and discovery 6 for that group of defendants is going to -- the next thing 7 is going to start.

8 With respect to the new defendants, their whole 9 thing is going to start from the beginning. One has nothing 10 to do with the other. It's not going to slow you down.
11 It's, frankly, Lehman's problem to deal with that. I'm 12 ready to start giving out trial dates.

13 MR. LEIB: That's all I needed to know, Your 14 Honor. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. PRICE: Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. PRICE: I'm sorry. There was a technical 19 difficulty. This is Gifford Price for --

20 THE COURT: Welcome back.

21 MR. PRICE: -- mortgage.

22 THE COURT: Welcome back.

23 MR. PRICE: Yeah, sorry about that.

24 THE COURT: No problem.

25 MR. PRICE: Technology's great when it works.

1 Anyway, just a couple of observations because we are 2 concerned with efficiency and due process obviously. One 3 thing with the amendment that we want to make sure that -- 4 of course, we've opposed it. We filed our paper.
5 Appreciate that.

6 But one thing also is we don't want to claim with 7 an amendment that there's some relation back claim with 8 respect to -- when events took place that it relates back.
9 That's obviously a concern (indiscernible) want to preserve.
10 And secondly, I just think it's important --

11 THE COURT: Wait, wait, wait. Sir, hold on. I'm 12 trying to understand what you're saying. You want to ensure 13 that Lehman doesn't make a relation back argument or you 14 want to --

15 MR. PRICE: We want to preserve the fact that 16 (indiscernible) something an amendment that there will not 17 be the argument well, because it's an amendment we get a 18 relation back to the original complaint. Of course, that's 19 an issue and we want to preserve our rights with respect to 20 that and how you technically --

21 THE COURT: Let me -- let's drill down on that.
22 Do you -- I just don't know what you mean by relation back.
23 I mean, relation back is obviously at play when you have a 24 statute of limitations that ran, for example, in between the 25 original complaint and the complaint that is sought to be

1 amended, so the plaintiff would say, I'm amending, there's a 2 relation back because it's all the same thing. That's not 3 at play here. What's at play here is, I'm guessing, a 4 number of the defendants would want to again make the 5 argument that the new counts of the complaint in downstream 6 indemnification claims on account of the RMBS settlements 7 are barred by the statute of limitations realleging the 8 arguments that the breaches occurred at origination.

9 That's got nothing to do with relation back. What 10 that does have to do with is I'll call it law of the case -- 11 I don't want to get into a technical argument about 12 collateral estoppel or res judicata -- but I've ruled on 13 that. It is what it is. I don't see the relation back 14 issue.

15 MR. PRICE: Well, all I'm saying is that we want 16 to make sure that the issue's preserved, obviously, because 17 sometimes when you have technicalities we mentioned 18 (indiscernible) technicalities about things, but someone 19 comes in, an amended complaint and they say well, then this 20 complaints amends -- is related back to the time of the 21 filing of the original complaint and of course how well that 22 shakes out people could argue, but we want to make sure that 23 that point is preserved and not given up just because 24 someone has a technical amendment to a complaint --

25 THE COURT: Well, let me give you --

1 MR. PRICE: -- rather than filing a new 2 proceeding.

3 THE COURT: I hear you. I still don't see what 4 the issue is, but I will give you the following assurance.
5 Despite how you may feel are my substantive rulings, this is 6 not a game of gotcha. Nobody's going to accidentally or 7 sneakily give up or be deprived of any rights. So in the 8 other motion with respect to ADR, there was a lot of concern 9 about preserving defenses, et cetera, et cetera. Not a game 10 of gotcha, so I have to be frank -- and maybe I'll ask Mr.
11 Maher if you have a better sense of what Mr. Price is 12 talking about, but I'm struggling to see the issue, but...

13 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, respectfully, this is not 14 an issue on whether or not it's appropriate to grant a 15 motion to amend. He's talking about what the legal effect 16 may be in a subsequent application or motion of the leave to 17 amend.

18 THE COURT: What's the relation back issue?

19 MR. MAHER: What he's concerned -- I don't know, 20 but to be honest with you, our position is that we had 21 contingent unmaturred rights that matured upon the settlement 22 in earlier 2018 --

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. MAHER: -- on the private label Trustee claims 25 and they are timely and you have so ruled previously with

1 respect to the Freddie and Fannie --

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MR. MAHER: -- issues, and that was affirmed by 4 Justice Pauley -- Judge Pauley.

5 THE COURT: Well, that's not accurate.

6 MR. MAHER: All right. It was --

7 THE COURT: It was --

8 MR. MAHER: He said there was no substantial doubt 9 that your ruling was correct --

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 MR. MAHER: -- and therefore denied leave to 12 appeal.

13 THE COURT: Correct.

14 MR. MAHER: So what you have called law of the 15 case, we believe would be applicable to the new claims for 16 private label Trustees --

17 THE COURT: I just -- I'm still --

18 MR. MAHER: -- so there is no relation back issue 19 under those circumstances.

20 THE COURT: So --

21 MR. MAHER: What he was concerned about, I 22 believe, is his argument that the statute of limitations 23 runs from the initial filing of the loans and there --

24 THE COURT: Sure, but --

25 MR. MAHER: -- or transfer of the loans.

1 THE COURT: Right, but that's why I don't see the 2 relation back issue because it's not the passing of a 3 statute of limitations that has occurred between the filing 4 of the original complaint and the filing of the subsequent 5 complaint which would be the classic law school hypothetical

7 MR. MAHER: Yes.

8 THE COURT: -- about whether the amending claims 9 relate back. That's not this case. Either I'm right --

10 MR. MAHER: Yes.

11 THE COURT: -- which is that the claims -- the 12 statute of limitations doesn't bar these, or at some point 13 someone's going to say that I'm wrong and I'm going to get 14 reversed on that point. So I don't see it as an issue of 15 relation back. I don't see a trap for the unwary here. I 16 think we ought to move on.

17 MR. MAHER: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Price, anything else?

19 MR. PRICE: Well, that's right. We just want to 20 preserve that and we appreciate your comments about 21 (indiscernible) and I think the point's been made in 22 preservation. And with respect to the other thing, I don't 23 think it's actually clear. I assume if they're amending 24 that they're serve separate complaints on everyone and the 25 point is we assume that there will be the same rights with

1 respect to responding by motions or whatever takes place, 2 because that's just part of what happens when complaints are 3 amended or supplemented and I assume that that's not going 4 to be abridged if the Court decides to go that way.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Maher?

6 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, it's up to the Court as to 7 how you handle responsive pleadings or motions with respect 8 to amended or supplemental pleadings. From our perspective, 9 we agree with Your Honor that it would be wasteful and 10 duplicative for them to file the same motions they've 11 already lost.

12 THE COURT: Here's the thing, though. They have 13 rights; okay? You're alleging -- you're going to allege new 14 --

15 MR. MAHER: Yes.

16 THE COURT: -- counts against them.

17 MR. MAHER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: New loans; right?

19 MR. MAHER: Yes.

20 THE COURT: And they should have all the rights 21 that they would have if you were filing a separate adversary
22 proceeding. That being said -- as I said half an hour ago -
23 - I do not believe that I am required to redo --

24 MR. MAHER: Right.

25 THE COURT: -- exactly the same thing that I've

1 already done and I would again implore folks if you want to 2 preserve appeal rights, that's fine, but there's literally - 3 - I find it very hard to imagine that I'm going to redo 4 hundreds of pages of decisions where there's no difference.
5 If someone wants to take a fourth or fifth shot at 6 convincing me that these claims accrued, the time of 7 origination, I'm not going to hear that.

8 If there's something different that has to do with 9 the fact that these arise out of the RMBS settlement, I'll 10 hear that. I mean, I'll hear all of it, but I'm just 11 basically appealing to everybody's common sense and ability 12 to be constructive litigants that we're not going to 13 unnecessarily go through stuff that we've already gone 14 through and as to which there's no meaningful change, so I'm 15 not abridging anybody's rights. I want to make that crystal 16 clear.

17 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, if the defendants want to 18 preserve their rights by saying they're going file the same 19 motion, we'd be happy to stipulate with them that Your Honor 20 would rule exact -- they make the motion, Your Honor will 21 rule as it has ruled previously --

22 THE COURT: Well, they're not going to agree to 23 that, Mr. Maher. They're -- and I'll say this. I am not 24 rehearing individual venue motions. I would consider that 25 frivolous in the extreme. Ms. Adler's about to tell me why

1 I'm wrong.

2 MS. ADLER: No, actually, I didn't hear the 3 predicate. I was listening --

4 THE COURT: The predicate was that in my desire to 5 ensure that all of your rights are preserved --

6 MS. ADLER: Yes.

7 THE COURT: -- limited by the commonsense notion 8 that I ought not have to do -- redo hundreds of pages of 9 decisions about the same issues, okay, my caveat was that I 10 have no intention of redoing 50 individual venue motions.

11 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, if I may respond --

12 MR. PRICE: Your Honor -- excuse me. I'm sorry.

13 MS. ADLER: Go ahead. I'll wait.

14 MR. PRICE: Gifford Price again. I understand 15 what's being said and what Your Honor has said. We all have 16 important rights to protect here and to do it, and of course 17 people have to pay attention to what's appropriate. All 18 we're saying is because we don't know everything about the 19 RMBS or reading papers or what kind of motions potentially 20 can necessarily be brought at the time, all we're saying is 21 if the Court is going to let them amend and they're going to 22 do it, we assume there'll be the same rights that would be 23 preserved as if they did file a new complaint. I think the 24 defendants have done an excellent job of trying to comply 25 with Your Honor's case management order. Timely

1 (indiscernible) were filed. We (indiscernible) operated for 2 nearly two years under it. And all I'm saying is we 3 shouldn't just skip past the important predicates.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Price, look.

5 MR. PRICE: -- and perhaps --

6 THE COURT: I sound like t --

7 MR. PRICE: -- that's what you said.

8 THE COURT: Excuse me. Excuse me. I sound like a 9 broken record. I'm not going to abridge any of your rights.
10 That being said, I'm appealing to all the defendants to not 11 engage in frivolous, duplicative litigation of the same 12 issues that were raised the first round. The only reason 13 we're in this situation now is because the RMBS settlements 14 happened later in time. This is not a case of the plan 15 administrator having thought better of its original 16 complaint and then decided to do more when it could've done 17 that all along.

18 It couldn't have, and my caveat is that I hope and 19 expect that I'm not going to see 50 individual motions to 20 transfer venue again, because I've done that. I followed 21 Ms. Adler's admonition to give everyone their individual 22 due, and I did that. I'm not going to do it again, and I 23 would consider the filing of individual motions to transfer 24 venue to be arguably frivolous.

25 Ms. Adler.

1 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, what I wanted to say --

2 MR. PRICE: I understand that comment and 3 appreciate it because we all have to be concerned with that.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Price, I'm going to ask you --

5 MR. PRICE: -- out because --

6 THE COURT: I'm just going to ask you to conclude.
7 I've got a full courtroom, and I'd like to move on. I think 8 I've given you ample time to be heard.

9 MR. PRICE: Thank you, Your Honor. Appreciated
10 it.

11 THE COURT: All right, very good.

12 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, what I had wanted to say a 13 moment ago is with respect to your concern about not having 14 to redo what you view as identical motions again. It would 15 be helpful if, assuming that you are going to grant leave to 16 file a third amended/supplemental complaint, if that 17 complaint contained sufficient facts so that the defendants 18 could evaluate whether or not with respect to the additional 19 claim or claims they thought a new motion was well founded 20 and not frivolous.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry, I don't understand what you 22 just said.

23 MS. ADLER: So in other words, there are -- Mr.
24 Maher just told Your Honor that consistent with some of Your 25 Honor's prior rulings, that his view is that Lehman had

1 contingent unmatured claims prepetition which matured --

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MS. ADLER: -- upon settlement --

4 THE COURT: Upon the settlement of the RMBS 5 claims.

6 MS. ADLER: Right. But we don't -- we've never 7 really seen the facts about when, for example, their 8 indemnification rights were transferred with respect to the 9 particular loans at issue or the particular defendants at 10 issue or were assigned by Lehman Brothers Bank to them -- to 11 LBHI, and that should be pleaded.

12 Similarly, we don't know enough about the chain of 13 transfer of the loans as they got to the RMBS Trustees to 14 understand what the contracts were, who made what 15 representations to whom, and whether that, in fact, impacts 16 subject matter jurisdiction. Possibly it makes it a far 17 more attenuated issue. I don't know.

18 THE COURT: There -- I hear you.

19 MS. ADLER: I understand.

20 THE COURT: They'll amend and they will construct 21 their complaint as they believe is legally sufficient and if 22 you don't think it is, you're just doing to have to tell me.
23 I can't write their complaint for them.

24 MS. ADLER: Understood, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: They should --

1 MS. ADLER: I just want to make that point so it's 2 on the record. I'm trying to address Your Honor's 3 reasonable concerns, obviously.

4 THE COURT: Sure.

5 MS. ADLER: And we'd like enough facts so that we 6 can make evaluations -- useful evaluations. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. MAGALIFF: Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MR. MAGALIFF: Howard Magaliff, Rich, Michaelson, 11 Magaliff.

12 THE COURT: How are you?

13 MR. MAGALIFF: I'm okay. Thanks. I'm 14 (indiscernible) counsel for Security National. I just have 15 a suggestion.

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 MR. MAGALIFF: I haven't discussed this with Mr.
18 Price, so I'm hoping I don't get an angry phone call later.
19 But to kind of accommodate all of the issues and especially 20 the comments you've made, I might suggest that the parties 21 consider that once the complaints are amended, there be a 22 stipulation extending everybody's time to answer or make a 23 motion because we wouldn't want to be in a position, for 24 example, of filing an answer and then having the Appeals 25 Court return and being precluded, perhaps, from making a

1 motion under Rule 12 for dismissal.

2 THE COURT: Wait, wait, wait, wait. Let me try to 3 follow this. So I'm sorry, I can't even follow this 4 possibility. The notion that -- are you suggesting that 5 your time to answer be indefinitely suspended until there's 6 a decision on the appeal before Judge Caproni?

7 MR. MAGALIFF: Well, I don't know that it's 8 indefinite, but here's the concern. When we say --

9 THE COURT: No, no, no, no. Let's just be --

10 MR. MAGALIFF: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Let's really drill down.

12 MR. MAGALIFF: Okay.

13 THE COURT: That's what you're suggesting.

14 MR. MAGALIFF: Yeah, but let me tell you what my 15 concern is.

16 THE COURT: No, but, Mr. Magaliff --

17 MR. MAGALIFF: Yes. That's what I'm suggesting, 18 but there's a reason.

19 THE COURT: I'm not doing that. I'm not going to 20 do that. Life is going to go on. You can go prosecute your 21 appeal. If you want to be on a faster time schedule before 22 Judge Caproni, you can bring that up with her.

23 MR. MAGALIFF: That's not the issue, Your Honor.
24 The concern is a Rule 12(b) issue. If you're imploring the 25 parties not to file motions to dismiss on the same grounds

1 that you've already decided, then the only alternative to an 2 amended complaint, presuming the parties don't want to file
3 those motions, is to file on answer. But if Judge Caproni 4 overturns your decision and says there's no subject matter
5 jurisdiction, an argument could be made that under Rule 6 12(b) our right to raise subject matter jurisdiction as a 7 defense has been waived. This was just a suggestion for 8 people to consider. I wasn't necessarily expecting a ruling 9 on it or anything. I thought it might be helpful to 10 accommodate some of the issues. That's all.

11 THE COURT: The net effect of what you're 12 suggesting is that I effectively -- it is once again 13 completely contrary to what we're trying to accomplish here, 14 and in order to avoid that consequence, I'm guessing the 15 plan administrator would say never mind, we're going to file 16 separate adversary proceedings. So everyone has a different 17 version of how best to avoid this litigation from going 18 forward. This is a new one. Mr. Maher, do you want to 19 address Mr. Magaliff's --

20 MR. MAGALIFF: That was not the issue, Your Honor

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. MAGALIFF: -- to avoid the litigation going 24 forward.

25 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, subject matter

1 jurisdiction is never waived.

2 THE COURT: It is never waived.

3 MR. MAHER: So the idea that you're waiving 4 something through a 12(b) motion is ridiculous.

5 THE COURT: Look, if the parties were genuinely 6 willing to constructively engage, this is all the types of 7 things that could've been worked out among counsel. But no
8 one is willing to do that. Instead, we have to spend time 9 on amending versus supplementing and issues that literally 10 you could get in a room and in an hour figure out. And 11 instead of having to file all of this briefing that fills a 12 binder, you could have spent more productive time, which is 13 moving things forward.

14 So, I'm delighted to hear practical suggestions, 15 but you're all smart lawyers and you could get together and 16 come up with a game plan.

17 MR. MAGALIFF: Your Honor, I'd like to --

18 THE COURT: I just want to observe the disparate 19 comments that have been made. Everybody has a different 20 flavor of how to not move this forward in the most efficient 21 way. In my view, the most efficient way is to grant leave 22 to supplement or amend in a way that doesn't abridge your 23 rights with respect to the appeal or with respect to your 24 ability to raise defenses, file motions, et cetera, with 25 respect to the new allegations, bearing in mind

1 fundamentally these are simply new loan files. They're new 2 loan files with indemnification claims that arose as a 3 result of a different settlement. That's it. That's it.
4 It's no more or less than that. So, Mr. -- go ahead.

5 MR. MAHER: I just wanted to make one point, Your 6 Honor, which is there are 87 defendants; 56 have raised no 7 objection and, in fact, filed statements of no objection, 8 some of them, with respect to the motion. You're hearing 9 from 31 defendants, many of whom are represented by the same 10 lawyer, recidivistly (sic) continuing to complain on every 11 issue at every time. We're happy to work with them, but I 12 wanted to make the point that that -- that the majority of 13 the defendants did not object to this motion, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I understand. All right, does anyone 15 else wish to be heard on the motion to supplement or amend?
16 Yes.

17 MS. HENDERSON: Your Honor, I assume he's speaking 18 about me, and I'm going my job and zealously representing my 19 client.

20 THE COURT: We're not going to -- okay.

21 MS. HENDERSON: So, I don't appreciate that.

22 THE COURT: We're not going to engage in ad
23 hominem attacks. I think recidivist is an unfortunate 24 choice of words.

25 MR. MAHER: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you. I

1 withdraw it.

2 MR. LEIB: Your Honor, this is Michael Leib.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. LEIB: Okay, just briefly. On the subject
5 matter jurisdiction, I agree that that was preserved. On 6 the improper venue, we can work out with Lehman's counsel 7 some way to just file a one-page thing saying we're refileing 8 the same 12(b) motion and Your Honor -- you know, we'll put 9 in a one-line thing saying for same reasons as previously 10 stated, the same ruling applies and that way we preserve the 11 issue. (Indiscernible).

12 THE COURT: Okay. Look, I don't want to rule on 13 things that aren't before me now. What's before me now is a 14 motion to amend. A technical issue has been raised about 15 amending versus supplementing. I'm going to grant the 16 motion. I'm going to direct that the plan administrator 17 work with the objecting parties or at least the ones who are 18 concerned about the implications of whether it's an amended 19 or a supplemental pleading to work together to cover all the 20 bases so that everybody's rights are preserved no matter
21 which way you decide you need to go. It's the same standard 22 as far as I'm concerned, and I believe there's a basis to 23 grant the motion either as a motion to amend or as a motion 24 to supplement.

25 And then, as I said, we're going to slide into the

1 existing procedures. You're not going to be slowed down by 2 the new complaints which I heard that first from Ms.
3 Henderson this morning. I appreciate your pointing that out
4 to me. And then I'm going to expect -- expect -- that you 5 work together while representing your clients to make this 6 efficient and to spare a waste of resources to have to redo 7 things that ought not to be redone, and I will be on the 8 lookout for things that I view as frivolous. All right?

9 So on that, we're going to move now to the motion
10 to amend the ADR procedures and I'm going to leave it -- 11 we're going to wait to have the plan administrator circulate 12 -- reach out to you, circulate a form of order. Please 13 don't give me competing orders. Please don't send me 14 letters that say we can't agree on the form of order.
15 Please. All right? All right.

16 THE COURT: Please don't give me competing orders.
17 Please don't send me letters that say we can't agree on the 18 form of order. Please. All right?

19 All right, next, ADR. So, if the motion for a 20 leave to amend were not difficult enough, the ADR motion is 21 even more difficult. I'm really at a loss to understand why 22 I should do a reboot on many of the arguments that have been 23 made.

24 I mean, when we were together on October 2nd and 25 the prospect of this was raised, what the Plan Administrator

1 indicated was, notwithstanding that this didn't work well in 2 every case before -- obviously not, because you're all still 3 here -- now it's all in. All their cards are on the table 4 because the private-label, the RMBS, settled. So now, the 5 Plan Administrator is in a position to do global discussions 6 with you.

7 Notwithstanding the degree of difficulty and the 8 complicating factors that have been raised by many of you, 9 fundamentally it gets down to there were loans that were 10 originated. There were breaches that they're going to 11 allege. They have to tell you what the breaches are. They 12 have to tell you that. They have to tell you if it's an 13 income breach. They have to tell you if it's a debt breach.
14 They have to tell you what the breach is. They have to tell 15 you what the loss is that was caused by the breach. They 16 have to tell you why it's a material breach. All of that 17 stuff. And that's what they're going to do.

18 What I'm not going to do is require them to 19 produce the level of discovery that many of you noticed was 20 done incident to the three-week RMBS trial surrounding 21 72,000 loans. That's not what you do before a mediation.
22 It would be pointless for them to invite you to a mediation 23 and say, guess what my claim is against you? It's just 24 flat-out silly.

25 So, we've addressed all of this before, and this

1 continued concern about the picking the mediator. Mediator 2 is not -- these mediators have familiarity with these 3 issues. It's nonbinding mediation. You engage, you go get 4 to hear what they have to say, they get to hear what you 5 have to say, the mediator makes observations, you engage in 6 good faith, and it either settles or it doesn't settle.

7 This subtext of... I don't know what. It just 8 doesn't make any -- it doesn't make any sense to me. So, I
9 don't know who wants to go first. You know, I've got a 10 whole list of very granular issues that have been raised.
11 You know, Lehman wants to start the clock because in the 12 past the Defendants have dragged their feet. You know, some 13 of the things -- there are just a laundry list of issues 14 that have been raised. I'm not going to order a standstill.
15 I'm not going to direct voluminous discovery.

16 MS. HENDERSON: Your Honor, may I respond?

17 THE COURT: Well, why don't you let Mr. Maher.
18 It's his motion, so let's hear from him first and then you 19 can, Ms. Henderson.

20 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, Bill Maher, on behalf of 21 the Plan Administrator, Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. I 22 just want to be brief because it's clear that Your Honor has 23 read the papers and understands the issues.

24 There were, again, 3000 sellers who we believe 25 were involved in what we consider to be Phase 3, the Private

1 Label RMBS trust settlement. And there are 14 objections 2 that were lodged with respect to 76 sellers. So, Your 3 Honor, with respect to all of the other sellers --

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 MR. MAHER: -- the motion should be granted.

6 With respect to the objections that have been 7 filed, I just want to point out that thus far, the mediation
8 process Your Honor ordered previously has been successful.
9 We have, in fact, settled more than 100 separate disputes 10 and taking in tens of millions of dollars as part of that 11 process.

12 Now again, we were hampered to a degree because 13 many of the counterparties would say, I want a general 14 release --

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MR. MAHER: -- in the discussions. And we weren't 17 able to provide that because --

18 THE COURT: No.

19 MR. MAHER: -- we couldn't have the scope of 20 liability fixed at that point because it was outstanding 21 what the private-label Trustee settlement would be. We are 22 now in a position to move forward and offer people global 23 settlements on all of their claims in these mediations. And 24 we think that will be a very positive and productive step 25 going forward.

1 So, we have a lot of hope about the success, or 2 the potential success of this process going forward. And 3 it's not just in RMBS. Your Honor knows there have been 4 many other mediations with respect to other cases, other 5 disputes involved in this situation.

6 So, what we have been seeking, really, Your Honor, 7 is just a slight modification of what Your Honor ordered in 8 2014. And slight, I mean, for example, instead of having 20 9 days to respond, they get 15 days, because we found that 10 there was just delay in the process unnecessarily. And 11 moving forward, there would be bottlenecks that we're trying 12 to solve through some of these revisions. But they're minor 13 adjustments. It's basically the same form previously, just 14 applied to a new situation.

15 With respect to the objections, Your Honor, we've 16 counted, I think, 17 different objections or types of 17 objections that we have kind of summarized in our reply --

18 THE COURT: Yeah, yeah.

19 MR. MAHER: -- submission --

20 THE COURT: Mm hmm.

21 MR. MAHER: -- by category.

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MR. MAHER: I don't propose to go through all of 24 those, Your Honor, because I think some of them are self-25 evident. But I do want to address at least two, or several,

1 of them. They're claiming that you don't have jurisdiction
2 to amend the order.

3 THE COURT: Okay. That's in the category of -- 4 whatever is beyond frivolous, that's in that category.
5 Okay? I have jurisdiction to modify my own order. I have 6 jurisdiction to enter a new order. We're not going to talk 7 about that one.

8 MR. MAHER: So, Your Honor, with respect to the 9 other objections that, you know, the litigation should be 10 stayed.

11 THE COURT: I'm not staying the litigation.

12 MR. MAHER: Again, there are -- I can go through 13 each one of these, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Well --

15 MR. MAHER: There's really --

16 THE COURT: Look, the --

17 MR. MAHER: If you'd like me to address any 18 particular one --

19 THE COURT: No. I mean, my concern about the 20 20 or 15 days is that in life, people could have things going 21 on.

22 MR. MAHER: Mm hmm.

23 THE COURT: They could be away. They could have a 24 family event. They could be ill. Let's keep it at 20 days.

25 MR. MAHER: That's fine, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay? We're going to keep it at 20 2 days. Ms. Henderson, are you going to object to my --

3 MS. HENDERSON: No.

4 THE COURT: -- keeping it at 20 days?

5 MS. HENDERSON: I just wanted to inquire, Your 6 Honor. There were two orders that were set. It was a June 7 order, 2018 or July order.

8 THE COURT: Yeah?

9 MS. HENDERSON: And in Document 50465, the 10 objectors were actually given 30 days. I was just going to 11 make that point.

12 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, there --

13 MS. ADLER: Excuse me, Mr. Maher --

14 THE COURT: Okay, but --

15 MS. ADLER: And Your Honor, there are 70,000
16 loans, which is substantially than the, I think, 11,000 17 loans involved in the Fannie and Freddie. And so, for most 18 defendants, they will have whatever period of time to 19 respond with respect to a substantially greater number of 20 loans. That was the reason that some of us requested more 21 time, because there's --

22 THE COURT: Okay. There are --

23 MS. ADLER: -- just a lot more work.

24 THE COURT: -- way too many of you standing.

25 Okay? It's going to be 20 days. If you have -- if you are

1 particularly burdened and good faith cannot respond in the 2 20 days, the Plan Administrator's going to give you an 3 extension of time. But we're going to start with the 4 aspirational goal of 20 days. It's to respond to a request 5 for mediation. That's all it is. Right?

7 THE COURT: That's -- Ms. Henderson?

8 MS. HENDERSON: Respectfully, Your Honor, I did 9 almost 40 of these. It's when you serve the formal ADR
10 notice, it's more than just a request to respond. You need 11 to take positions on the loan level analysis. So, if we're 12 talking about 30 new loans, that requires our forensic 13 investigator to forensically review the loan (indiscernible)
14 very familiar with them, the RBS trials, in less than 30 15 days.

16 THE COURT: Is that -- Mr. -- is that true?

17 MS. HENDERSON: What was different --

18 MR. MAHER: It varies, depending upon what the 19 response is. Some people have gone loan by loan and 20 contested specific --

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. MAHER: -- loans on specific issues.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. MAHER: Some people have given a generic 25 response that doesn't specify the loans, and then we address

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MR. MAHER: -- at the mediation itself. People's 4 response varies, so I can't say there's one way or another 5 way. If they say that they want more time to do a forensic 6 loan-by-loan analysis and are telling us they are going to 7 do that, we would probably try to accommodate that, Your 8 Honor. But sometimes it's just --

9 THE COURT: So --

10 MR. MAHER: -- there's delays for no purpose, and 11 people don't want to mediate --

12 THE COURT: So, we're going to --

13 MR. MAHER: -- so they --

14 THE COURT: We're going to start with 20 days, and 15 if you have -- if a particular defendant has an 16 exceptionally large number of at-issue loans, that's 17 something that can be addressed. Okay? So, we can enter an 18 order that says, in good faith and for good cause shown, 19 solely related to a large number of loans, and as to which 20 the response will provide loan level forensic detail 21 reflecting a review of the files, then you can have an 22 extension. You're not going to get an extension just to 23 generically say, we deny everything.

24 MS. HENDERSON: Your Honor, it's important to do - 25 - from my perspective, having done a lot of these -- it's

1 important to do the forensic level analysis because it makes 2 the mediation productive. It gives you something to talk
3 about. So, I --

4 THE COURT: Ms. Henderson?

5 MS. HENDERSON: -- appreciate that, Your Honor,
6 very much. Ver much.

7 THE COURT: I sat here for three weeks listening 8 to evidence about 72,000 --

9 MS. HENDERSON: No.

10 THE COURT: -- loan files.

11 MS. HENDERSON: Yes, I understand.

12 THE COURT: I know all about forensic file 13 reviews.

14 MS. HENDERSON: You understand that.

15 THE COURT: If that's what you wanted to do, I 16 would be delighted, because that's what's going to get these 17 cases to be done. You're going to review the loan files.
18 You're going to tell them what you find. They're going to 19 tell you why you're right, why they think you're right, or 20 why they think you're wrong. Either it's going to settle or 21 you're going to go to trial. And then at that point, you 22 will have done a forensic review of the loan file, so that 23 it then can proceed on a fast track. Right?

24 MS. HENDERSON: Well, to the extent we are given 25 the full documentation. I don't --

1 THE COURT: Well, but here's --

2 MS. HENDERSON: Judge, I don't want to get into 3 that fight, though --

4 THE COURT: But now you're raising one of my 5 favorite --

6 MS. HENDERSON: -- right now.

7 THE COURT: -- one of my favorite arguments.
8 Okay? You have the loan file.

9 MS. HENDERSON: Your Honor, no. State statutes 10 have different retention deadlines and dates. We do -- some 11 of our clients have them. Some of them do not.

12 THE COURT: But the --

13 MS. HENDERSON: Just think of it from a 14 technological perspective. When you migrate technology, 15 that alone --

16 THE COURT: Ms. Henderson, don't --

17 MS. HENDERSON: -- changes the situation.

18 THE COURT: Don't talk down to me.

19 MS. HENDERSON: I'm sorry. I didn't mean to, Your 20 Honor. If I gave that impression, I apologize.

21 THE COURT: The question is whether they have 22 documents that you don't. The distinction that I'm trying 23 to draw is documents that you have that are within your 24 control versus this sense that you need discovery from 25 Lehman. Okay?

1 I understand fully some of the files have been 2 digitized. One of the issues is when files are digitized, 3 does everything make it from paper into the digital format.
4 Okay? We'll face that delightful issue at some time down
5 the road, maybe in 2020 or 2021. Okay? You have what you 6 have. But it's not... It doesn't have any bearing.

7 MS. HENDERSON: Let me make it clear, Judge. I 8 don't want full discovery. That is not our request for my -

10 THE COURT: But you're going to --

11 MS. HENDERSON: -- 43 clients.

12 THE COURT: My point is that if you... You're 13 going to review what you have and you're going to take a 14 petition in response to the ADR notice. You're going to go 15 to the mediation. Lehman's going... They sure as heck 16 better be able to say to you, on loan ending 2146, there is 17 an income breach; we know this because of this piece of 18 paper, or this fact. And you're going to be able to respond 19 to that. That's what the mediation is going to -- that's 20 what it's going to look like.

21 So, if they happen to have something that you 22 don't have, they're going to give it to you. If you have 23 something that they don't have, you're going to give it to 24 them. Right?

25 MR. MAHER: That's been the practice, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So, we're all good.

2 MS. HENDERSON: Correct.

3 MR. MAHER: Very well, Your Honor.

4 MS. ADLER: Yes.

5 MR. MAHER: If you'd like me to address any of the 6 other specific objections --

7 THE COURT: No. Ms. Adler wants to tell me 8 something.

9 MS. ADLER: I do, Your Honor. Thanks. I think 10 that everyone shares the objective of having the mediation 11 be set up so that it is --

12 THE COURT: Successful.

13 MS. ADLER: -- it's likely to be as constructive as 14 possible.

15 THE COURT: Sure.

16 MS. ADLER: So, for that reason, I think it's 17 really important, not only about loan level breaches, but 18 these are claims for indemnification. We need to understand 19 what happened to these loans when we -- with respect to 20 information we don't have. And I think that Lehman's reply 21 was based on their experience of the mediation. But both 22 Ms. Henderson and I, and probably others in the courtroom on 23 behalf of Defendants, have tried to share some of our 24 experiences with what was less than likely to be 25 constructive the last time around.

1 And one of those things was for my clients, we did 2 not get adequate information. So, for example, to me, when 3 I am assessing a settlement on these claims, from the little 4 I know from the proposed claim, it's not only whether there 5 was a breach and what the -- and what evidence there is of 6 the breach, and do I think the Plan Administrator has 7 sufficient evidence to prove the breach, which is relevant -

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MS. ADLER: -- right, not only what I have. But 11 it's also what happened to this loan down the road, was 12 there a material breach, when did it cease performing, what 13 happened with the loan servicer; all of those kinds of 14 issues, because they impact what arguably caused the --

15 THE COURT: Ms. Adler --

16 MS. ADLER: -- loss.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Adler, if you are really at a loss 18 for something to do, you could read the trial transcript of 19 the RMBS trial --

20 MS. ADLER: Well ---

21 THE COURT: -- where this issue was gone into in 22 extensive detail. So the plan administrator is very 23 familiar with this issue and you're entitled to have a 24 conversation with them around this issue.

25 MS. ADLER: I just want to point out for the

1 record that when -- before the estimation protocol, before 2 things were at that stage, in 2014, when the Court issued an 3 order that was a protocol reflecting what documents --

4 THE COURT: Ms. Adler, I'm going to ask you to 5 stop.

6 MS. ADLER: Okay.

7 THE COURT: That was a protocol that had to do 8 with at that time -- were over 90,000 claims. It does not 9 have a relationship to dealing with a suite of individual 10 breaches. You are entitled to understand from the 11 standpoint of the elements of what the plan administrator 12 has to prove, why they believe the loss that they incurred 13 was caused by the material breach that they've identified.

14 They're not at a mediation, obligated to present 15 the case that they would present at trial. So you're 16 entitled to have a conversation with them about that, 17 you're entitled to have a conversation with them about the 18 allocation issue because these are indemnification streams 19 that arise as a result of the settlement. But I'm not going 20 to --

21 MS. ADLER: I just -- Your Honor is right. What I 22 was talking about was the documents that Your Honor thought 23 Lehmann should get when it was going to mediate with the 24 RMBS trustees.

25 THE COURT: The RMBS trustees were there

1 representing over 100,000 claims. I'm -- it's apples and 2 oranges. I'm not -- I mean what you're doing is you're 3 trying to impeach me with something that I've ordered 4 before.

5 MS. ADLER: No, I'm not.

6 THE COURT: And I'm not interested in that, okay?

7 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, I wasn't trying to impeach 8 you; I was trying to make the point that Lehman sought, when 9 it was going to mediate many of these wounds, it needed 10 certain kinds of information. And, therefore, it is not 11 unreasonable for us to ask for similar kinds of information 12 for this mediation.

13 THE COURT: Down the road, that's fine; for this 14 mediation, I'm sorry but I disagree.

15 MS. ADLER: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Anyone else in the courtroom? Ms.
17 Henderson?

18 MS. HENDERSON: So, Judge, I just wanted to point 19 out, kind of cutting to the chase, if it's okay with Your 20 Honor --

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 MS. HENDERSON: The July 28, 2015 order -- again, 23 it's Document 50465 -- it provided -- several people
24 objected last time. Your Honor found -- entered an order.
25 And the concessions that were given in Section 10C was it

1 allowed the objectors to select the mediator. In Section 2 17, LBHI was to pay for the mediator. And I think it's an 3 8B, if I can read my own writing, we were given 30 days.
4 We've already covered that, so I'll withdraw that.

5 I think -- Your Honor, I just want to make a brief 6 point that having done 40 of these mediations, I still have 7 one or two clients in this litigation that have one 8 (indiscernible). It's an expensive exercise. And trust me, 9 we came to the table in good faith. And I think one of the 10 key things that will make these things productive, having 11 done so many, is not only the documents but having a 12 mediator that will bring both parties to the table. Judge, 13 we (indiscernible) --

14 THE COURT: So, what magic wand do you have that 15 enable -- is it just the optics of you selecting the 16 mediator that will convince your client to engage more 17 constructively? No, I am trying to understand... Ms.
18 Henderson, we've been at this for a couple years now and I
19 really do try to accommodate requests for bespoke treatment 20 but I just am trying to understand, do you believe it will 21 affect the outcome if you get to pick the mediator?

22 MS. HENDERSON: Let me give you an analogy, Judge.
23 I -- during the 40 mediations over a few years, I did a 24 mediation of a separate investor. We walked in the door, it 25 was across the street from the governor's office in North

1 Carolina when that whole bathroom problem was happening.

2 And I walked into that mediation and in less than two hours, 3 we took a half a million dollar claim and sold it for 4 $16,000. It gave me a piece of sanity.

5 And I just want to say, Your Honor, I've been 6 waiting for the moment to come to you and say we want to 7 mediate these. I have seen the course from --

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry --

9 MS. HENDERSON: Judge, I've seen what's happened.

10 THE COURT: So what (indiscernible) was that? So, 11 I'm not following the example. Was that in this case?

12 MS. HENDERSON: No, but it was a productive 13 mediation because the mediator brought both parties to the 14 table.

15 THE COURT: Well, Ms. Henderson -- but I don't 16 understand that.

17 MS. HENDERSON: I want that to happen here, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Okay, that's great, but we've got a 19 cast of mediators who -- no, but see, you're making a face.
20 Okay? You're making a face, which is indicating that 21 somehow the notion of going to mediation with mediators who 22 are familiar with these issues will inspire your client -- 23 will cause the mediation to fail. And what you're saying is 24 we want to pick, and then we're going to go in and then 25 there's a higher probability that your clients...

1 And let me be frank, Ms. Henderson. You're a very 2 good advocate, taking good care of your clients. You're 3 going to have a big role in whether or not these cases 4 settle. You're far more sophisticated about the 5 impartiality of mediator than to think that there would be a 6 different outcome in mediation because you're in North 7 Carolina or you're in New York. I just --

8 MS. HENDERSON: Let me try a little example, if I 9 may. I scrolled through the list of mediators, Judge, when 10 we would have an experience with a mediator that was less 11 than productive. We have clients that are from large banks 12 to small mom and pop shops, okay?

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MS. HENDERSON: In one of the small mom and shop 15 mediations I chose a jurist, like Your Honor. Okay? That 16 mediation did not move less than 10 percent. And it was for 17 various reasons --

18 THE COURT: Oh, judges are terrible at those 19 things, you know?

20 MS. HENDERSON: No. She was -- no, Judge. So I 21 want -- the point is out of the mediators listed last time, 22 I found one that could bring LBHI to the table. And I 23 respectfully say that, Judge, because I've worked with these 24 gentlemen for four years.

25 THE COURT: But what does that mean, bring LBHI to

1 the table? I just don't understand that. I mean, they 2 settled through mediation through every means imaginable
3 billions of dollars of claims just since I've had the case
4 in the last five years. I don't understand.

5 MS. HENDERSON: That's one of the issues, Your 6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: I just -- I really want to understand 8 this. What do you mean, bring LBHI to the table? They're 9 at the table.

10 MS. HENDERSON: But are they really at the table?

11 THE COURT: Ms. Adler, you're shaking your name.

12 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, I -- just a number of us 13 were frustrated that we didn't feel like the mediators were 14 listening to both sides with equally open ears. I don't 15 know how else to say it. And it was frustrating for us.

16 THE COURT: And how would you -- so if you could 17 dictate how this would work with respect to a pool of 18 mediators --

19 MS. ADLER: I would have a --

20 THE COURT: -- what would your suggestion be?

21 MS. ADLER: It would be a larger pool of 22 mediators, not people who do a great deal of work mediating 23 necessarily for Lehman, not people who necessarily even 24 practice in this court. It could be the pool at the 25 Southern District. These are state law indemnification

1 claims. They can be assessed by independent mediators. And 2 the mediator would be jointly chosen; it's what the general 3 rule in the Southern District ADR protocol provides, or 4 chosen by the Defendants. And I think that would help.

5 THE COURT: So, your idea, though, is to select 6 someone who has no familiarity with loan origination --

7 MS. ADLER: Well, they might or might not have 8 loan familiarity with it, but they would not be practicing 9 in a way where they were doing a great deal for Lehman and 10 getting a great deal of work from Lehman.

11 THE COURT: So you're not saying it out loud but, 12 basically, your view is that the list of mediators, it's 13 like mediating with Lehman -- that they're, in fact -- those 14 highly respected professionals who are serving as mediators 15 are not going to do their job in good faith?

16 MS. ADLER: I'm not saying that at all, Your 17 Honor. I'm saying that I had two negative experiences.

18 THE COURT: Well --

19 MS. ADLER: And I tied it in part --

20 THE COURT: What's the N, Ms. Adler?

21 MS. ADLER: The N?

22 THE COURT: The N. Two out of how many? Just the 23 fact that you had two negative experiences is not compelling 24 evidence of the fact that the entire process is defective.

25 MS. ADLER: I'm not saying the entire process is

1 defective. I think, again, we want to set up the process so
2 that everyone participating in it feels like it is A, 3 impartial, and B, as likely to lead to constructive and 4 productive results as possible. And I thought that was an 5 objective everyone here shared.

6 THE COURT: It is, but I've now heard this for 7 quite a long time and I still do not understand as a 8 practical matter what the --

9 MR. PRICE: Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: Excuse me. Could you wait to be 11 called on, please?

12 MR. PRICE: Yes, this is Gifford Price for 13 Security National. We actually have an order in place with 14 Lehman --

15 THE COURT: Mr. Price, I'm muting your line. I'm 16 going to recognize you to speak; you're not just going to 17 speak. Thank you.

18 I think we've talked about his one enough. I'm 19 unconvinced, I'm unpersuaded that the mediations are 20 destined to fail by Lehman by the mediators being selected 21 from the pool that's been set up for this purpose. That 22 being said, I would suggest to the plan administrator that 23 you explore the possibility of expanding the pool to include 24 some experienced individuals who may be familiar with the 25 general subject matter, who participate in the Southern

1 District mediation program and give the Defendants some 2 sense and the reality that there might be greater choice in 3 an expanded pool.

4 To the extent that you do that, to the extent that 5 you do that and somebody appeals to you, Ms. Adler, Ms.
6 Henderson, or whomever, you can pick up the phone, you can 7 send an email, and you can say, hey, I think it would be 8 really good to use Mr. or Ms. So-and-So for the mediation 9 with my client, and let them take that up.

10 The plan administrator should be incentivized, 11 should have every incentive, as Ms. Henderson and Ms. Adler 12 have been urging, to make it work. So in the spirit of 13 moving this forward, would the plan administrator be 14 amenable to proceeding in that way?

15 MR. MAHER: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Ms. Adler?

17 MS. ADLER: Thank you, Your Honor. I'm a little 18 unclear on if that means that the mediator -- and I 19 appreciate very much expanding the pool --

20 THE COURT: They're going to expand the pool, 21 okay, and then when it comes time for them to select, okay, 22 you can pick up the phone or send them an email and say, 23 hey, we think we'd have a good experience with Mr. X or Ms.
24 Y.

25 MS. ADLER: Why don't we agree that the mediator

1 will be jointly selected, which is --

2 THE COURT: Because joint selection --

3 MS. ADLER: Yeah?

4 THE COURT: -- is a bottleneck. It's a
5 bottleneck, it's an unnecessary bottleneck.

6 MS. ADLER: Well, you know, it is what's provided 7 in the general order -- the M352 I think, the ADR protocol 8 under which this mediation -- or under which auspices this 9 mediation will proceed. But, you know, if I felt confident, 10 and I will try, that the selection of the mediator would be 11 consensual, that would be fine.

12 THE COURT: How many loans are involved in the 13 client that you're representing, Ms. Adler?

14 MS. ADLER: About I think between 30 and 40, Your 15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: Why don't you take a shot at agreeing 17 with Mr. Maher when they make the selection?

18 MS. ADLER: I will, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right?

20 MR. HOFF: Very briefly, Your Honor?

21 MR. LEIB: Your Honor? This is Michael Leib, if I 22 may be recognized? Up to you, obviously, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Leib, my technology allows me to 24 see that you have your hand raised. I'm going to hear from 25 the people in the courtroom first, and then I'm going to 1 release the line of everybody on the phone who wants to 2 speak. All right?

3 MR. LEIB: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So, if you would be patient, I would 5 appreciate it. Thank you.

6 MR. HOFF: I'll be very brief, Your Honor.
7 Substantively, we believe the order should not abridge any 8 rights. I think that's consistent with what the Court said 9 in terms of subject matter jurisdiction, in terms of whether 10 LBHI has these loans.

11 THE COURT: Of course. That goes without saying.

12 MR. HOFF: Well, I agree but that's not what 13 happened in the last round of motions to dismiss. LBHI 14 attempted to use the ADR orders saying the Court has already 15 found jurisdiction.

16 THE COURT: And I didn't buy that.

17 MR. HOFF: I appreciate that. Procedurally, the 18 Court's going to order what it's going to order and we'll 19 try to work with Lehman as best we can to work something 20 out. But fundamentally mediation is a consensual process, 21 and having one party dictate where the mediation will occur 22 and who the mediator will be makes it not a consensual 23 process. And I think it's appropriate that parties choose 24 the mediator jointly and the place of mediation. It's also 25 a very expensive place to be. Professional rates are much

1 higher in New York than they are in other parts of the 2 country.

3 THE COURT: Wait, this one I don't understand.

4 MR. HOFF: Mm hmm.

5 THE COURT: Whose professional rates?

6 MR. HOFF: Mediators' professional rates.

7 THE COURT: So you're -- so we're not -- now, 8 we're beyond, let's use the pool in the Southern District of 9 New York. What you're suggesting is that we should use 10 mediators who are local people around the country?

11 MR. HOFF: Well, I think it should be a consensual 12 process, Your Honor. It might be in Utah. It might be in 13 Colorado. It might be in New York.

14 THE COURT: How many loans do you have at issue?

15 MR. HOFF: Well, we now have about 70 loans at 16 issue, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Anyone else in the courtroom want to 18 speak? Okay. Mr. Leib, we're going to release your line 19 now.

20 MR. LEIB: Thank you, Your Honor. I understand 21 your concern about having the defendant select the mediator.
22 I will say that the pool was (indiscernible) in by Lehman 23 and their thoughts on the pool, but the list is chosen by 24 (indiscernible) and I know they're going to scan the list 25 now.

1 But one of the issues is, and we are one of the 2 parties that had a bad experience in mediation. I mean, we 3 did not find the mediator was constructive. And there was 4 an issue of cost, let's just say that. And it would be 5 helpful, I do think, from something that you had said at the 6 very beginning, it's just a matter of trust.

7 I'm often somebody who in mediation tells the 8 other side, you pick the mediators because you're going to 9 trust them. And that's fine. I can mediate with anybody.
10 In this particular situation, given that a number of these 11 parties have already gone through the mediation process, and 12 the ones who didn't settle, a fair number have expressed 13 that they have bad experiences, and we're one of them.

14 It would be helpful, I do think, from a trust 15 perspective, to either allow the defendants to take the 16 mediator at a minimum, if Lehman selects somebody, give us 17 one opportunity to say no to that one, and (indiscernible) 18 go to a second person.

19 And I'm not saying we get completely to a power in 20 that situation, I'm trying to come up with something 21 creative that would solve the concerns of Lehman as well.
22 But if we're forced to go to a mediation with specific 23 mediators that Lehman's chosen that our client looked at and 24 says, this is not somebody we want to be with, it's just 25 going to make it less likely that it's going to succeed.

1 THE COURT: Okay. I think that that's an 2 excellent and constructive suggestion, and I'm going to 3 direct that the plan administrator incorporate right of 4 first refusal, if you will. If Lehman selects a mediator, 5 and in consultation with your clients, the client indicates 6 that -- or you, or as counsel, you determine that for 7 whatever reason, in good faith, you don't believe that 8 that's likely going to succeed, let Lehman know and Lehman
9 will select another choice. But we're not going to roll 10 down a list of 15 names.

11 MR. LEIB: No.

12 THE COURT: And have you say no to every one. So 13 you're -- you know, first, as you suggested, I'm going to 14 adopt your suggestion literally. Lehman will pick. You'll 15 get to say, no, we had a bad experience or, no, I heard that 16 so and so had a bad experience.

17 You know, you all have phones and you all have 18 email. So be constructive. Make suggestions. I'm just 19 optimistic. I want to be optimistic that if you really want 20 to try to settle these claims, one of these mediators could 21 help you do it and it's not necessary to, you know, to 22 expand the pool to 300 people all over the country. I am 23 sensitive to the issue of cost. I'm sensitive to the issue 24 of cost.

25 MR. LEIB: And not (indiscernible) of another

1 issue that we did raise, Your Honor, which is that we do 2 believe that Lehman should be the one (indiscernible) for 3 the mediator, so the theories in that -- Lehman is selecting 4 the mediators. Lehman is the, you know, the parties request 5 a mandatory mediation. It's not two parties coming together 6 agreeing that this is the right time in the case to go to 7 mediation.

8 And we're fine participating. But we've already 9 participated once in a mediation, and ours did not fail, 10 Your Honor, because of some global relief issue. Ours 11 failed pretty, you know, didn't even come close to 12 succeeding. And the -- if Lehman (indiscernible) mediation, 13 it's fine, but we've already gone through a pretty extensive 14 process in mediation the first time around, and now to have 15 us have to go through a second one --

16 THE COURT: What did -- enlighten me. What did -- 17 did you participate in mediation the first time around?

18 MR. LEIB: Wintrust did. It was not the Lehman
19 attorneys to do so, but Wintrust did, yeah.

20 THE COURT: Well, are you familiar with what the 21 cost was to your client?

22 MR. LEIB: It was significant, Your Honor, both 23 from a perspective of the cost of the mediators, and then --

24 THE COURT: I'm asking you for a number. Do you 25 know what the number is?

1 MR. LEIB: You know what, Your Honor? I just -- I
2 did not come to this with the actual number. I apologize.

3 THE COURT: But you can't tell me it's significant 4 and then not even give me a ballpark number. You can't. I 5 --

6 MR. LEIB: Your Honor, while this hearing's going 7 on, I can try and look it up, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Well, no, but you can't tell me that 9 cost is a significant issue and not be able to give me a 10 ballpark number, whether it's $500, $5,000, $50,000. So you 11 know, that's great, but --

12 MS. HENDERSON: Your Honor, may I be helpful?

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 MS. HENDERSON: Okay. For some of our clients, 15 Lehman paid the mediation costs. For some of them that paid 16 their own costs, it was originally a $10,000 retainer from 17 our side. I understood that to be a split retainer. We 18 negotiated a $5,000 retainer, because that was too cost 19 prohibitive.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Maher, you want to give me some 21 constructive suggestions on this one?

22 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, I'd like to note that 23 there are 3,000 sellers. There are 76 people objecting to 24 this process. There are 17 different objections. Your 25 Honor, there is an efficiency to having mediators who are

1 familiar with these matters, as your recognized, be the 2 parties who participate in the mediation process, because 3 you don't have to reinvent the wheel, and it costs more 4 time.

5 THE COURT: Right, okay. So I haven't done
6 anything that undercuts that. I'm simply asking you to 7 expand the pool. But now we're on the issue of cost. So 8 circumstances that led to some shared cost, why could those 9 not be applied to the new round of mediations?

10 MR. MAHER: Yeah, the costs are early split, Your 11 Honor, with respect to the people who are objecting here.
12 It's the American rule, and you basically bury your own 13 costs. And any mediation I've been involved in, you always 14 split the costs.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Then I don't understand what 16 argument is being made.

17 MS. HENDERSON: In order, and 50465 Order, Your 18 Honor, under Subsection 817, LBHI paid the mediation costs.

19 THE COURT: I don't --

20 MS. HENDERSON: For the objectors because it's 21 involuntary. That was the basic argument, Judge.

22 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, there were some people who 23 objected in 2014, and you asked us to work out separately 24 our objections, their objections. We did work those out on 25 a one-off basis to a particular counterparty who we were

1 dealing with. What I think Ms. Henderson is saying is, she 2 wants the advantage of the negotiation that took place in 3 2014, now in 2016 for her clients. And that's 4 inappropriate.

5 THE COURT: It's 2018 now.

6 MR. MAHER: 2018, Your Honor.

7 MS. HENDERSON: They were represented by our firm, 8 Judge.

9 THE COURT: Yeah, you know, maybe we've been at 10 this too long. It's already 12:30. But what -- I'm missing 11 the point. She's making -- she's saying she wants the same 12 treatment. She wants --

13 MR. MAHER: She's saying that --

14 THE COURT: -- to put, you know, favored nations 15 treatment essentially.

16 MR. MAHER: Yeah, she's saying for the people who 17 objected in 2014 --

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MR. MAHER: -- and we -- Your Honor asked us to go 20 outside the room and try to resolve their disputes, and we 21 were able, ultimately, to resolve their objections
22 consensually. Part of that involved who was going to pay 23 what portion of the mediation costs.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MR. MAHER: And so, what I think Counsel is saying

1 today is, she wants the deal they negotiated in 2014 to 2 apply to her clients in 2018.

3 THE COURT: But I'm sorry. I thought Ms.
4 Henderson, you were telling me that that was the deal that 5 you got for your clients then?

6 MS. HENDERSON: That's correct, yeah. We just 7 have a few more, Judge. It made a difference for 8 (indiscernible) --

9 MR. MAHER: Yeah, and so, for the ones who agreed 10 -- we agreed to that deal in 2014 --

11 MS. HENDERSON: Yeah?

12 MR. MAHER: -- we said we'll live with that.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. MAHER: That's fair. If you had that deal in 15 2014, you'll have the deal in 2018.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. MAHER: What Ms. Henderson is saying is, I 18 have 60 other clients and I want that deal for them.

19 THE COURT: 60 other clients?

20 MR. MAHER: Or however many.

21 MS. HENDERSON: Oh Judge, I don't have 60 other 22 clients.

24 MR. MAHER: However many.

25 THE COURT: Talk to each other. Work this out. I

1 mean, there has to be some logic around this.

2 MS. HENDERSON: Well, I think, Your Honor, the 3 logic is that it's involuntary mediation, so it's not

4 something the defendants are necessarily choosing.

5 Obviously, the Court is ordering it, and they're complying

6 with that order.

7 THE COURT: Here's what we're going to do.

8 MS. HENDERSON: But they're --

9 THE COURT: Okay? Here's what we're going to do.

10 We've been at this for almost two hours. I'm going to take 11 a break. Plan administrator, you folks sitting here, you're 12 going to go into that conference room for 15 minutes and see 13 if you can work this out. Folks on the phone, you'll just 14 have to hang out. Okay? I'm going to come -- I've got a 15 large group coming in at two o'clock. I'm going to come 16 back in in 15 minutes, and we're going to wrap this up, all 17 right? If anyone needs a comfort break, you know where the 18 facilities are, all right? We'll make sure that's -- it's 19 open.

20 (Recess)

22 MR. MAHER: Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes?

24 MR. MAHER: We've had an opportunity to have 25 discussions with some of the objectors separately.

1 THE COURT: Hold on a second.

2 MR. MAHER: Mm hmm.

3 THE COURT: Sorry. Yes?

4 MR. MAHER: So what we'd like to propose is there
5 were 76 -- 14 objections joined by 76 sellers. With respect 6 to all of the other people who are a part of this notice 7 process, the 3,000 sellers --

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. MAHER: -- we propose that the order be 10 amended -- be entered as is, without objection. And as to 11 the 76, we believe we've an agreement in principle that we'd 12 like to document in the next several days --

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. MAHER: -- and submit to Your Honor on a 15 consensual basis.

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 MR. MAHER: There are one or two people on the 18 phone who might be subject to that. We need to speak to 19 them. They're a part of the 76 objector groups, so there 20 wouldn't be an order entered as to their clients today.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. MAHER: With respect to (indiscernible), 23 they're doing to be separately carved out of the order on an 24 individual basis.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. MAHER: But I think there's a consensual deal 2 that we will be able to document and submit to Your Honor in 3 the next few days.

4 THE COURT: All right. Does anybody want to make 5 a follow-up comment on that?

6 MS. HENDERSON: I apologize, Judge. I wasn't 7 listening. I just want to make sure that he -- I'm sorry, 8 Mr. Maher. He stated that the order that was entered did 9 not change, you know, 50465, I think that's what he stated.

10 THE COURT: That's actually not what he stated at 11 all. What he said was that with respect to -- 12 MS. HENDERSON: We disagreed to that.

13 THE COURT: No, but he --

14 MS. HENDERSON: Okay, it says it in the motion.

15 THE COURT: That's not what was said.

16 MS. HENDERSON: Okay.

17 THE COURT: What was said was that with respect to 18 those parties who have not lodged an objection, the order 19 should be entered with respect to those parties. With 20 respect to the objecting parties, there's going to be a 21 separate order that's entered. The substance of that was 22 not indicated.

23 MR. MAHER: And the one -- Ms. Henderson is 24 correct. If there was an order previously entered in 2014, 25 with respect to a particular client situation, we will honor

1 that order going forward.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You just didn't say that. So -

4 MR. MAHER: I didn't say that, but that was part 5 of it.

6 MS. HENDERSON: Thank you very much for clarifying 7 that.

8 MS. ADLER: And Your Honor, there may be a couple 9 of other parties carved down, who objected, but we're 10 talking.

11 THE COURT: But that's what I'm being told. I'm 12 being told that the objecting parties are going to be 13 subject to a separate order after further conversations with 14 the plan administrator. Am I not right, Ms. Adler?

15 MR. MAHER: That is correct, Your Honor. It's 16 what she's --

17 THE COURT: Even a broken clock is right at least 18 once a day.

19 MR. MAHER: She is correct.

20 MS. ADLER: Your Honor, it might be one separate 21 order. That was my point.

22 MR. MAHER: The point is, in order to unduly 23 complicate this, we're talking about the 76 objectors and 24 everybody else. There are a couple of other people who will 25 be part of the 76 objectors' group, even though they haven't

1 formally objected, but they will be subject to the separate 2 documentation, Your Honor. So it needn't -- we needn't 3 address that with the Court right now.

4 MS. ADLER: I agree with that, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. So okay. If you agree, 6 then I will trust that at some later point, you'll explain 7 it to me because what I'm hearing is that people who didn't 8 object are now going to get some individualized treatment.

9 MR. MAHER: There is a few, Your Honor, but 10 they're represented by current counsel who have objectors.

11 MS. HENDERSON: But the rest of the world, the 12 rest of the planet that didn't join us today, Your Honor, in 13 this fun exercise, are not (indiscernible) --

14 MR. MAHER: Your Honor, I'm trying to get a 15 resolution. And we think we can do it with the 76 objectors 16 and maybe a few more.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Could you approach, please?

18 AUTOMATED VOICE: Your line is muted.

19 THE COURT: Just to review for the record, I'm 20 going to get an order with respect to parties, defending 21 parties who have not objected to the requested relief.
22 Then, I'm going to get an order or a series of orders with 23 respect to what will be the procedure for ADR for the 24 parties who have objected.

25 MR. MAHER: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Correct?

2 MS. ADLER: Yes, Your Honor.

3 MS. HENDERSON: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to do that.

5 And then, I will also wait for an order with respect to the 6 first motion that we heard, when we started at 11 o'clock 7 this morning, the motion with respect to the additional 8 pleadings. I want to -- I appreciate your efforts to 9 resolve the remaining objections. I sound like a broken 10 record, but I'm going to urge you again, I want this to move 11 forward. It just cannot continue this way. I happen to 12 believe, based on no evidence, but I happen to believe that 13 the plan administrator must, at this point, be highly 14 motivated to settle these claims.

15 And I would suggest that you take advantage of 16 that, rather than spending time providing me with excessive 17 pleadings. Not going to truncate any of your rights, never 18 have and never will. You may not agree with my decisions, 19 but it is what it is. So we're going to move forward, and I 20 am imploring you again, please engage constructively. Let's 21 move this forward.

22 Because at a certain point, I am going to start 23 giving out trial dates. And you will have already reviewed 24 the files in connection with the mediation. So that just 25 puts us that much closer to being able to set trial dates.

1 So I kept you way too long. Thank you, everybody.

2 MS. ADLER: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 MR. MAHER: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Safe travels home to those who came --

5 MAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MS. HENDERSON: Thank you, Judge.
